

1.Name: FeedMe

Industry: Mobile app, computer software

Overview: FeedMe is a mobile app company that providing a food delivery service. To brief our service, Through our app people will be able to see which couriers will deliver to your area before placing their order and skipping the hassle of walking through the ordering process then not having the delivery option. Otherwise, People are able to see the delivery prices and compare them with the different couriers to find the best deal. We strive to give an easy to use and intuitive mobile app for customers on both iOS and Android platforms with all the necessary features. With a strong presence in a food delivery market, we are ideally positioned to lead the market.

2.Name: Castle Crew

Industry: Mobile game

Overview: Castle Crew is building a new generation of casual games in the increasingly mobile world. We have expertise in developing games across all genre from engaging casual, social, action and to games for iOS and Android for both phone and tablet. We have team of passionate designers and developer specialized in developing games for iOS and Android mobile platforms using popular game engines. we look towards innovation and invention to disrupt the mobile game industry and create games that can be enjoyed by all.

3. Name: DailyBurn

Industry: Mobile app

Overview: DailyBurn is a fitness and diet-based company which is mainly supported by the app. The target of the app is to incorporate a consistent workout regime and clean diet into schedule. Our company offer mostly workout videos and meal plan services. Our mission is to bring you more time, better meal plans and a variety of easy to follow workouts. Living a fit lifestyle can be time consuming and finding the motivation can be draining. We want to give your time back to you. By giving you access to our wide selection of exercises, you can save the headache of creating your own workout regime. Therefore, we strive to develop user friendly app, so all our customers are able to access easily.

4. Name: Cloud Studio

Industry: Design

Overview: Cloud Studio is a branding design company and we are passionate about the creation, design, and depth of brands. While we create logos, names and websites, we always focus on the strength of the identity being reflected. Cloud Studio is about discovering and forming memorable brand identities, whether it's personal, corporate, or non-profit. We are driven to create unique brands that are not only memorable.

5.Name: Worldwide Media

Industry: Video production

Overview: Worldwide Media is based on Vancouver and we are a full-service video production company designed to provide strong creative solutions. Our mission is to deliver solutions that improve our client's ability to speak their message to their target market. whether or not we have a tendency to facilitate parts of a video production or take it all the means from conception to completion, our aim is to deliver worth and skilled service through positive experiences and enduring relationships.

